(January 23, 2004- TROY) Mayor Harry Tutunjian and the City of Troy are pleased to announce the hiring of six (6) new officers to the police department.

The officers will be sworn in officially TODAY at 10 a.m. in the City Council chambers. There will also be a promotion from officer to sergeant made.

“I take the issue of crime in the City of Troy very seriously, and so do our officers,” Tutunjian said. “These are cops who will be hitting the streets to ensure that Troy becomes the clean and safe city I want it to be.”

The following officers will be sworn in Friday- Daniel Magnetto, Ryan Holohan, Gianni Bove, Karrie West, Brian Gross, and Russell Clements. Officer John Coons will be receiving the promotion to sergeant.

Gross and Holohan will graduate from the Police Academy in March before taking part in a 13-week class. The rest of the new recruits will begin a 23-week training at the Police Academy in the coming weeks.

All members of the media are invited to attend the swearing in.
